House Concurrent Resolution 18 on Second Reading

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 18, Congratulating President Lyndon Baines Johnson on his inauguration as the 36th President of the United States of America.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Blanchard and by unanimous consent the resolution was considered immediately.

Senator Hardeman offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend H. C. R. No. 18, third paragraph, by changing the word "first" to "second."

The amendment was adopted.

Senator Blanchard moved to reconsider the vote by which the above amendment was adopted.

The motion prevailed.

Question—Shall the amendment by Senator Hardeman to H. C. R. No. 18 be adopted?

Senator Hardeman then by unanimous consent withdrew his amendment.

Senator Blanchard then offered the following amendment to the resolution:

To amend H. C. R. No. 18 by deleting the third paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Whereas, The Honorable Lyndon Baines Johnson is the first native-born resident of Texas to be elected to the Presidency of these United States;

The amendment was adopted.

The resolution as amended was then adopted.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 26

Senator Rogers offered the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 26, Creating the Committee on Faculty Compensation in state-supported colleges and universities.

Whereas, There exists a need for continuing improvement in the instructional levels of our State colleges and universities to meet the challenges of a rapidly changing society; and

Whereas, The growing population and economy of Texas places increased demands on the State's educational institutions and their faculties; and

Whereas, In recruiting and retaining the most capable, qualified, and effective teaching personnel, the State colleges and universities must compete not only with other colleges and universities in the nation, but with industry and government; and

Whereas, This competition is not limited to actual salary payments, but also includes marginal benefits which industry utilizes to attract and hold personnel and the analogous personal security payments used by other colleges and universities to provide added faculty compensation; and

Whereas, A need exists for the State institutions of higher learning to compete in base salary and benefit payments in such a way as to provide maximum benefits to faculty members from each State dollar expended; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That the following be accomplished:

Section 1, The Committee on Faculty Compensation in State-Supported Colleges and Universities is hereby created, consisting of seven (7) members; three (3) of whom shall be members of the House of Representatives and one (1) of whom shall be a layman who is not on the faculty or staff of any such institution; all appointed by the Speaker of the House; and two (2) of whom shall be members of the Senate and one (1) of whom shall be a layman who is not on the faculty or staff of such institution; all appointed by the Lieutenant Governor. The terms of all members shall commence with their appointment and shall terminate on the convening of the next Regular Session of the Legislature following adoption of this Resolution. Vacancies occurring from any cause after appointment may be filled by the respective appointing officers.

When the membership of the Committee is completed, the Senate member having the greatest seniority of service in the Senate shall call a meeting at which the members shall by majority vote elect a chairman, vice-chairman, and a secretary. A vacancy in the chairmanship shall be filled by the advancement of the vice-chairman, and a new vice-chairman shall be elected by the Committee. A majority of the Committee's membership shall constitute a quorum to transact business.

Sec. 2. Members of the Committee shall receive no pay for their services on the Committee, but shall be reimbursed from the Contingent Fund of the respective Houses of the Legislature for necessary expenses actually incurred in the discharge of their duties.

Sec. 3. Message From the House

Hall of the House of Representatives,
Austin, Texas,
February 4, 1965.

Hon. Preston Smith, President of the Senate:

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

S. B. No. 85, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing for the annexation of common and/or independent school districts to certain Junior College Districts for Junior College purposes only; providing for the creation of Boards of Trustees for such Districts and annexed common and independent school districts, and determining the manner of representation on said Board from the several common or independent school districts, the territory of which has been annexed to such Junior College Districts for Junior College purposes only, and which Junior College Districts contain one or more cities with a population in excess of 50,000 persons according to the last Federal census; providing the mode, manner and time of electing members of said Boards for their terms of office, and enacting other provisions relating to the subject matter; repealing laws in conflict therewith to the extent of such conflict; preserving to such Junior College Districts the powers and privileges of Junior College Districts generally; providing a saving clause; and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

HARDEMAN, Chairman

Sent to Governor

February 4, 1965

S. B. No. 66

In Memory of
Mrs. Myra Texas Ratliff

Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 71)

Whereas, On April 6, 1964, at the City of Haskell, Texas, death came to Mrs. Myra Texas Ratliff, mother of our distinguished colleague, State Senator David Ratliff of Stamford, Texas, and with her passing our Heavenly Father has called to her eternal reward a pioneer citizen of this State whose lifetime of eighty-seven years was in all ways most exemplary and reflects enduring credit to the State which she loved dearly; and

Whereas, Myra Texas Ratliff was born in Collin County, Texas, on September 6, 1876, one of seven sons and seven daughters of D. W. Pace and Mahala Rebecca Hampton, both of whom were members of families with deep roots in early Texas history; and

Whereas, D. W. Pace, Mrs. Ratliff's father, came to Texas with his family from Alabama in 1838 when he was but two years old, settling in Lamar County; and Mahala Rebecca Hampton, Mrs. Ratliff's mother, came to Texas with her family from Kentucky before the Civil War; and

Whereas, Both the Pace and the Hampton families came to Collin County during that period, and Mrs. Ratliff's father and uncle, John Pace, and two of her brothers all served in Captain Hezekiah Warden's Company "I," 16th Texas Cavalry Dismounted, Fitzhugh's Regiment, Walker's Division, during the Civil War; and

Whereas, Myra Texas Ratliff married L. D. Ratliff, a Tennessean, on December 18, 1898, bearing him eleven children, and throughout their forty-four years of marriage and until Mr. Ratliff's death on December 14, 1942, Myra Texas Ratliff maintained a home in which her husband and their children drew from her faith, moral courage and devotion; and

Whereas, The young family first lived in the Indian Territory and later at Decatur, Texas, with the father engaged in the practice of law, moving to Haskell, Texas, in 1921, where L. D. Ratliff continued in the legal profession until his death, earning for himself wide respect as a highly competent attorney and an honorable man; and

Whereas, In recognition of her many years' devotion to home, family and church, Mrs. Ratliff was named one of the outstanding mothers of Texas in 1948 by the Golden Rule Foundation, which noted in its commendation the love and joy she shared with her children and grandchildren, and the admiration which her dedication, wisdom and courage had merited for her among all who knew her; and

Whereas, She is survived by a brother, J. G. Pace of Dallas; eleven children, including State Senator David Ratliff of Stamford; Dennis P. Ratliff, former state legislator and former judge of the 39th Judicial District and well-known Haskell attorney; L. D. Ratliff, Jr., present district judge at Spur, Texas; W. P. (Bill) Ratliff, Haskell County Attorney; O. B. Ratliff, prominent Lubbock attorney; T. J. Ratliff, a longtime school teacher at De Quincy, Louisiana; Roy L. Ratliff, of Austin, former Haskell County Clerk; Hugh C. Ratliff, retired U. S. Air Force warrant officer, now manager of the Haskell Clinic; Mrs. C. T.
